

Wedding Bells Will Ring Next Week

Hays-McMullen Nuptials to be Quietly Solemnized in San Francisco But Exact Date is Secret

The wedding of Mrs. Pauline McMullen and Dr. W. B. Hays will be solemnized in San Francisco the latter part of the coming week, but the exact day is being secretly guarded by the popular couple who plan a quiet ceremony to be followed by an elaborate wedding dinner and a short trip down the peninsula. Most of the wedding trip will be spent in San Francisco where the doctor and his bride will be domiciled at the Inside Inn and enjoy the many attractions of the Exposition.

Mrs. McMullen will be married in a handsome seal brown tailor made costume and will have no attendants. The popularity of this charming bride to be is evidenced by the wonderful collection of beautiful prenuptial presents which she has received. The most exquisite hand made lingerie, doilies, aprons, towels, pillow slips, dresser scarfs and handkerchiefs are among the collection while numberless dainty handpainted china cups and saucers complete an array that tells better than words the high regard of a large circle of devoted friends and well wishers. The Granice home, which the doctor has leased is being made ready for the happy couple, who will furnish it most artistically.

HAD DELIGHTFUL VISIT

Miss Nancy Bates has returned from Hanford where for a month she has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Burris and Mr. and Mrs. McDowell. Miss Nancy was the motif of many delightful social affairs and her dark eyes and striking type of beauty attracted much attention in the southern city. Her leave taking was greatly regretted. Miss Bates says Hanford is a larger city than Santa Rosa and almost any one of the social sets there would make a crowd when gathered together. Motoring is the favorite pastime but the winter dancing clubs are now being organized.

HALLOW'EEN FESTIVITIES.

The Halloween festivities in Sonoma are to be right merry this year. The ladies of the White Shell Club give a party Friday night and fine music has been engaged. The big event will be the Native Daughters ball Saturday night. Elaborate decorations of corn stalks and jack a lanterns will make a jolly setting for the lovers of Terpsichore.

Mrs. Batchelor, one of the Native daughters, has disposed of 80 tickets which is just an indication of the success of this fine affair.

The Catholic ladies have been doing some very commendable work in cleaning up the Catholic Cemetery. Next Thursday has been set apart for the continuation of the task and the ladies are urged to attend or send a substitute.

Sunday's Sermon at the Congregational Church

The lesson of the morning will be drawn from the sorrow of Peter caused by his betrayal of his Lord. The human heart uninformed has ever asked the question. Why does God permit sin to exist? Why is the world filled with sorrow? God made man in his likeness, absolutely pure and absolutely free and absolutely more than we know unless we are informed by His revelation which is in the world's guide book known as the Bible. This book tells us that man was made with out any provision for sorrow; he was made without any provision for sin; he was made without any provisions for death. Man was made as near like God as he could be made and was left to decide for the right until it became his nature to so decide. Man decided to do as he pleased, whether it was right or not and the disposition has come down thru all generations of men. There is not a human in Sonoma who is big enough to use his liberty right. God made us free, but we all need a bridle and bit. Our purity is all gone. We made death and distress. God never made a devil. The devil cast out God and the race is still at the same business. Don't blame God for your self constructed environment. The devil made himself and we made our own hell and foster our own devil. When you hear the church bell, say "Get thee behind me Satan" and go to church where you can learn of the Jesus prescription that will save you from yourself.

CHILD NARROWLY ESCAPES DEATH

Little Eleanor Broca, nine years of age and a pupil at the Presentation Convent had a narrow escape from death Wednesday while on her way to school. She failed to see a motor truck which was passing and walked right in front of it with the result that she was knocked down by the big machine and severely cut about the forehead.

CATHOLIC BAZAAR A BIG SUCCESS

The Autumn festival given by the ladies of St. Francis Church last Saturday and Monday evenings was a financial and social success.

The program was replete with attractive features and the comedians from San Francisco with their little Holland sketch and trained goose made a decided hit. The numbers presented by the pupils of the Presentation Convent were also excellent and the sisters were to be commended on the good showing of their pupils. The programs also included Master Powers in a well rendered recitation and many good musical numbers.

The country fair feature was a big money maker and proved a winning attraction. Among the fortunate ones was Tony Cereghino who got the fine robe donated by Geo. Breitenbach. Other prize winners were:

Stick pin, G. Sarff, rocker, Mrs. M. Norrbom; box of cigars, H. Steiger; pig, J. Valente; carvers, J. R. Cantillon; chafing dish, G. F. Heggie; turkey, Mrs. E. Miller; percolator, F. Lee; lady's sweater, Jack Kiser; cake, Jack Kiser; gray sweater, Joe Meyer; hand bag, Alice Kehoe; umbrella, Mrs. R. Caminetti; lace collar, Mary Laveroni; sack of potatoes, J. R. Cantillon; rosary beads, Mary Walsh; berry set, F. Groskopf; hand made lace, Mrs. Laux; rug, Jack Kiser.

Father Comerford says the net proceeds will do much toward church maintenance and improvement.

AUTUMN BAZAAR LAST NIGHT

There was a festive air about Union Hall last night when the Congregational ladies held full sway with their attractive bazaar and the attendance was most gratifying. The evening was enjoyed by everyone present and the ladies are well pleased with the results of their untiring efforts of the past few weeks.

INDEX-TRIBUNE LOCATION

The Index-Tribune continues to keep its office on the Granice property on Napa St. The residence has been leased to Dr. Hays and his bride-to-be by the widow of the late H. H. Granice, she having been given a homestead right to the property for seven years by Judge Denny.

Mr. Murphy and his wife, the eldest daughter of Mr. Granice, have apartments in the Dal Pogetto block.

Otto Von Geldern and wife will be visitors here over Sunday.

EXCITING RUNAWAY HELD ON ROBBERY CHARGE

A horse belonging to Jimmie Taylor took fright Friday morning near the drinking fountain and ran away. Taylor was thrown out of the rig and in falling to the road cut his head severely and had to be taken to Dr. Hays for treatment. His entire scalp was laid open and it took ten or twelve stitches to close the ugly wound.

The runaway furnished a thrill for spectators as it dashed around the plaza but the frightened pony was finally captured and the rig sent up for repairs.

INTERESTING AFTERNOON

The lecture by Dr. Morgan on "Home Dietetics" at the Woman's Club rooms last Friday is still being discussed by those who were fortunate enough to hear the well known speaker on this important topic of safe guarding the health and supervising the diet of the family.

Dr. Morgan, while a young woman, is a graduate physician and is sent out by the University to spread the gospel of right living. The entire series of lectures, which have been going on under the patronage of the Womens Club, have been most interesting and instructive.

The last afternoon at the Club was in charge of Mrs. Ray Hunter who decorated the club rooms charmingly in feathery cosmos and served delicious tea and cakes.

AT WORK ON CALIENTE PLANS

The San Francisco firm of architects, O'Brien brothers of Montgomery street are busy putting the finishing touches on the plans for the fine new hotel at Agua Caliente Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodor Richards are to have the latest sanitary features and will consider conveniences as well as the artistic side of the building. The plans call for special laundry machinery and the finest plumbing.

The exterior, as out lined in these columns some weeks ago will conform to the large stone dining room which will be rehabilitated and made one of the most attractive dining places in the Valley.

News Notes

Misses Johnson and Saylor were the hostesses at Thursday's gathering at the M. E. Church and the arrangements for the afternoon were delightful.

Mrs. Hartley Gottenberg was the lucky winner at bridge which was played Thursday at the "Dick" Watt home. The prize was an embroidered tea cloth.

Miss Lillian Johnson has returned from a visit to her aunt who has been very ill in San Francisco.

Mrs. J. J. Dunbar will be the hostess for the next afternoon meeting of the Ladies Aid of the Methodist Church.

Messrs. Wm. Clewe, Wm. Clements and Wm. Helberg will motor to Stockton today to attend a demonstration of the Sam-on Tractor for which Mr. Clewe is the local representative.

HELD ON ROBBERY CHARGE

Denis Turis, a Greek section hand, has been charged with robbery by Andrew Trause, who accuses him of taking his gold filled watch valued at $32 and a small sum of money.

The robbery is alleged to have occurred at Schellville Monday night. Trause claims he met Turis and another Greek in an Embarcadero saloon and that they followed him on his way home. At a point on the road between the post office and the S. P. Station, Trause was confronted with two men who ordered him to throw up his hands and the gleam of a knife blade enforced their demand. After relieving him of all his valuables, the two beat a hasty retreat, but deputy Sheriff Murray was notified and finally located one of the suspects whom Trause identified as Turis, the man with whom he had been drinking on the night of the holdup. Turis denies his guilt but was held to answer and Judge Small fixed his bail at $500. Being unable to furnish the amount he was taken to the county jail pending his hearing which is to be held this morning.

Voters are Warned

Edward H. Hart, who was twice the candidate of the Republicans in this district for congress has issued an address to the voters urging them to vote against nonpartisanship next Tuesday.

His strongest plea is voiced in the following paragraph.

"If parties are destroyed in the state we shall have the greatest difficulty in rallying the voters to the support of a national ticket."

It is the realization of that fact that has led every prominent Republican, Democrat, Socialist and even many Progressives to declare against nonpartisanship and it is the universal opinion of all the leading statesmen and thinkers of the country that nonpartisanship is a serious blow to popular government and a menace to the very rights of the people."

The State Assessors Association has sounded a warning against the amendment relative to changing the method of taxation which is number 9 on the ballot. It is pointed out that this measure would give legislators altogether too much power and it is practically admitted by the proponents of the measure that the referendum could not be invoked to remedy any mistakes that such an enactment would occasion. Tax tinkering is something that touches the peoples pocketbooks and the association of assessors feel that as public servants they should sound a warning to those who go to the polls next Tuesday.

Sonoma's Street Work Holds Interest

Plan of City For Ground Work Development Calls Forth Wide and Favorable Comment

The city planning that is being considered by the trustees and citizens of Sonoma, relative to street improvement, is enlisting the interest and attention of other municipalities and bringing forth much favorable comment. The news of Sonoma's $1500 appropriation for the street work around the plaza and the installation of so much fine stone work, gutters, cement side walks etc., has been chronicled in newspapers all over the state and the people on the outside are beginning to realize that Sonoma has shaken off the legarthy that long was associated with its name and is now awake to the proper kind of ground work development.

The appropriation for the first unit of street work about the plaza, while small, is a good beginning and will probably embrace the blocks on Napa Street, between First Street West and First Street East or all the frontage between the Union Hotel and Hotz's store. The city will do its half and the property owners be called upon to do their part after the city's part is completed. It is planned to pattern the roadway after the State Highway type of improvement as that is claim d to be more enduring when once installed. Oil macadam has been discussed, but as Petaluma has had experience with that kind of surface and is now finding it unsatisfactory and tearing it out, the advocates for the better work declare it will be economy in the long run to build right although the initial cost be a trifle higher. It is estimated that $6000 will have to be expended around the plaza. The money appropriated for the first unit will be taken out of the next taxes and bids for the work will then be asked for.

While the city is busy figuring on town improvement the community in general is busy discussing the preliminaries for connecting up with the State Highway. After the splendid work of securing the routing of this important artery via the Black Point cut-off to within four or five miles of us it becomes incumbent on our residents to build the lateral that will give us the benefit of the traffic that will come this way and make travel from San Francisco right into Sonoma an easy matter. Now that the Highway has been secured and it is only a matter of building a few miles between here and Schellville, it seems probable that a road district may be formed to put through the work.

Methods and means will come up for discussion through the Chamber of Commerce.

Celebrate with Dinner Party Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hansen celebrated their eighteenth wedding anniversary this week by giving a fine dinner at which several of their out of town relatives joined. Congratulations are extended this popular couple by the Index-Tribune. During their six years residence in our valley they have made many warm friends.

Mosquitoes Must Go But How?

The mosquito has not a friend in the world unless in the lower forms of entomological creatures, he perchance is accounted a vocalist by some of his own kind, but be that as it may the mosquito is an undesirable and despised speck of motion and his elimination from the otherwise faultless atmosphere of our beautiful valley is a crying necessity.

To land on him as an individual in this age of efficiency is plainly a horrible waste of energy and highly illustrative of the loss of force which takes place when we go at anything of moment single handed (cooperation being essential to success.)

The mosquito must go, but how? The California League of Municipalities has recently pointed out that the motive to do right is present in the majority of progressive communities but that the method must be pointed out and promoted.

Our people are not unmindful of the menace which the mosquito is to our popularity as a summer resort and place of residence. They realize that in these days of countless automobiles the pleasure seeker does not take into account proximity alone, but that he will go where he can get the greatest amount of comfort with his recreation.

We all feel that we should protect our summer resorts which have big investments at stake and upon whom a mosquito menace works the greatest hardship, but how to marshall our forces is a question. It is true that a recently enacted law makes it possible to create a district through appeal to the supervisors, but such procedure has drawbacks and limitations due to our geographical position in mosquito land which is obviously an area which could not be cleaned up without cooperation and simultaneous action outside of our immediate district. If we can arouse Napa, Petaluma and Marin to war on the pests and share the expense of a more complete extermination, results would undoubtedly be highly satisfactory. Science has done much in extirpating this menace to health and comfort.

To start a campaign of sufficient magnitude calls for agitation. This may come from different sources but must coalesce in the Chamber of Commerce and thus present itself in proper form for consideration by kindred bodies in the other communities.

The fraternal orders in our midst should adopt the slogan, "the mosquito must go," for a visiting brother should always be protected. Moose and Elk are choice morsels for the winged epicures, while Odd Fellows do not escape, nor are Native Sons immune. Even Masons cannot give them the high sign while Druids and Woodmen are favorites with the little buzzers, wherefore our fraternal orders should protect their own.

The City Trustees with civic pride should agitate and the Chamber of Commerce likewise while the Women's club as a matter of health, sanitation and general community welfare should lead in the crusade and help formulate plans for the abatement of this nuisance.

Preserves in the Community Cupboard

Up in Ukiah the people are keen for a cannery and are working tooth and nail to consolidate the Lake County Canning Company's string bean plant at Upper Lake with a defunct canning concern in Ukiah. It is pointed out that this year at Upper Lake 25,000 cases of beans were turned out in the short season of two months while 150 or 200 people were employed and the payroll amounted to approximately $10,000.

It appears that the Lake county concern wishes to cut down the cost of production by saving the long haul from the railroad and the cost of the getting out of the finished product and Ukiah people seeing the big possibilities in the prosperity which a fat pay roll and increased population will bring to its business people, are going to do every thing possible to locate the concern at the Mendocino county seat. This is good business and the type of alertness communities need.

Here in Sonoma Valley we have a cannery proposition on foot and we trust it will enlist the interest of everybody and that encouragement will be forth coming to the fruit growers who are going into it. They may be actuated by mercenary motives, which is common sense. In fact, the more money making talent behind the cannery project the better, but whatever comes to the individuals will be from the out set while the men who have money invested must wait for their returns. When successful growers throw their experience and business acumen into the kettle there are preserves in sight for the community cupboard, which should make everyone sit up and take notice. Therefore it behooves us to encourage the cannery idea in Sonoma Valley.

GRAPES AND QUINCES BEING HANDLED

Twelve thousand boxes of grapes were handled in two days last week by the winery of S. Sebastiani, all from Sonoma Valley vineyards. A transformer burned out at the big plant last Saturday which necessitated the holding up of nine carloads of grapes, which were waiting to be put through the crusher while Messrs. Shire, Gibson and Evans of the California Telephone and Light Company, worked all night putting in a new transformer. Sunday everything was in fine working order and the pressing continued.

A carload of quinces, 600 boxes in all, were packed by Will Helberg at the famous Eden Dale orchard of the Clements, last week and shipped to Omaha, Nebraska.

PICNIC SUNDAY WILL ATTRACT CROWD

The picnic and vintage festival to be given Sunday, October 24th, by the German ladies auxiliary of the United Order of Redmen at Schuhman's resort, Buena Vista, will attract a large crowd as the committees having the affair in charge have assurance of a large local attendance and also the coming of a large number from San Francisco. The games and contests will be very interesting and a number of fine prizes will be given away during the afternoon and evening. Vogel Stechen a raffle stand and rifle shooting contests will prove most attractive.

There will be music, dancing, singing and free refreshments. A fine dance platform has been erected under the trees and the beautiful moonlight will contribute its charm to the occasion.

Bear Flag Stamm is a beneficiary order and numbers among its members our most prominent German ladies. All of the ritual of the lodge is in the German language.

ACTION OF SINGLE SPOON SUPRISSES MANY

Sonoma people who bought the simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adlerika, are surprised at the INSTANT effect of a SINGLE SPOONFUL. This remedy is so complete as a bowel cleaner that it is used successfully in appendicitis. Adlerika acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel and ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE of constipation, sour or gassy stomach ONE MINUTE after you take it the gasses rumble and pass out - James McElney, Druggist.

Frank Weems, the enterprising young merchant, owing to an increase in business has enlarged his store. He now occupies the entire ground floor of the Odd Fellows' building.

Jas. B. Small has returned to Sonoma after an absence of several months in San Francisco and Stockton. Jim says there is no place like old Sonoma.

Grape picking in the Goodman vineyard commenced this week.

Mrs. M. Donahue has been lying very ill the past week at her home in Schellville.

L. M. Johannsen has been absent on a business trip in Santa Rosa the past week.

Dr. H. H. Davis, who has been very ill the past few weeks, is up and around again.

Donald, the little four-year-old son of A. F. Campbell, had his left arm badly fractured and dislocated at the elbow on last Saturday. It seems that the child was in the habit of riding a horse to water and it was while on the horse's back that he lost his hold and fell to the ground. His father promptly picked the little fellow up and noticed his arm hung useless and limp. Mr. Campbell immediately drove to town and had his little son's injuries attended to by Dr. Walliser. Donald now seems all right and is as lively as a cricket.

Summary of the News Gatherer

Every dollar spent in Sonoma makes a bigger better town.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Maffei were visitors to the Fair Sunday last.

John Lawles Sr. was over from Petaluma Tuesday.

John Laux, of the Northwestern Pacific, spent Sunday with his folks.

Mrs. Hope Glenn, formerly of Locust Grove, has been the guest of Petaluma friends.

Mrs. J. H. Thomas of San Francisco has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Peter Hansen.

The pretty cottage of Mrs. A. D. Lowell is being painted by Fred Bulotti.

Mrs. A. Castex was in town this week looking after her property interests.

Mrs. G. Chizola of San Francisco has been visiting her Sonoma relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Robin have been having a gala time at the Exposition.

Mrs. Robt. Hill has been attending the State Grange meeting in Oakland.

Romeo Cantoni, the popular proprietor of the Old City Bakery, is under the care of Dr. Hays.

Mayor and Mrs. Von Hacht have been enjoying a vacation in the metropolis.

Mrs. Ida Dorman and Miss Doris Dorman went to San Francisco Sunday to visit the Exposition.

Mrs. Munroe was taken very ill with pleurisy the first of the week but is improving under the care of Dr. Gobar.

Rudolph Wagner's friends will be sorry to learn that he has been at home with la grippe the past week.

Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Gottenburg celebrated their fifteenth wedding anniversary Sunday at the Fair.

Mrs. Fred Helberg's many friends will be glad to hear that she is expected home from the Hahnemann hospital tomorrow. Mrs. Helberg's illness was due to a severe case of ptomaine poisoning.

Mrs. Mae Erlebach tendered her little son Victor a delightful children's party Monday in honor of his birthday. Victor was nine years old.

The local sporting contingent visited Vallejo Wednesday night and took in the return match between Schaffer and Meehan. The contest resulted in a draw.

Mrs. Desmann and sons of San Francisco have been visiting in Sonoma. Mrs. Desmann is a sister of Mrs. Gobar.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hotz went to San Francisco over the week end. While away Mrs. Hotz had pictures taken of her little son Preston.

Bryan Smalley of Seattle, a cousin of Mrs. M. E. Murphy, visited here over Sunday. Mr. Smalley is in the lumber insurance business and has just returned from Eureka.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cummings were down from Eureka Saturday to attend the funeral of "Bud" Mold, formerly Mr. Cummings' assistant at the Santa Rosa depot.

Arthur Fisk was in town this week.

Mrs. Chambers and Miss Alma Bill were pleasantly entertained by Mill Valley friends last Sunday.

Miss Lucile Fochetti came up from San Francisco Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Campbell were visitors to the Exposition from Saturday to Monday.

L. E. Darling was a well known Sonoma business man in San Francisco Monday.

J. R. Wells of San Francisco was in town this week shaking hands with acquaintances.

Mrs. C. Selinger of San Francisco, a niece of Mrs. Grosskopf is at the Gobar sanatorium taking the rest cure.

Mrs. McMullen and her son Joe are to "do" the Fair next week and anticipate a royal time. There is a chummy companionship between this mother and son that is worthy of emulation.

Looking very modish in a blue fur trimmed Russian blouse costume, Miss Florence Green was up for the week end with her parents and upon her return to her studies Sunday was taken to the train by her mother, who cleverly drives their Overland car.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Ashe were visitors in Santa Rosa one day this week. They are frequently at their fine ranch above Glen Ellen, but spend a great deal of time in San Francisco and were particularly interested in the horse show at the Exposition, as both are judges of fine horses and in fact own several themselves.

Miss Dorothy Rainer of the bay city is here designing some charming costumes for the bride-to-be, Mrs. Pauline McMullen. Incidentally it may be mentioned that some beautiful wedding gifts are to be showered upon this popular couple, whose troth is soon to be plighted. Orders have been placed for some exquisite hand painted China and bric-a-brac, silver and crystal will be numbered among the presents.

Review Complimentary

The Chronicle's book reviewer pays a pretty compliment to Edna Poppe Cooper, the young author of "Song of the Wind and Other Poems." However it is meet that we should put in Sonoma Valley's claim to the talented daughter of Glen Ellen's postmaster since the Chronicle credits Petaluma with the honor. The fact that the book of poems was published in Petaluma instead of Sonoma, accounts for it.

Here is what the Chronicle of Sunday says:

"A pleasing voice from Petaluma is heard in 'Song of the Wind and Other Poems,' by Edna Poppe Cooper. It is the writer's first venture in book form, and the modest beginning should receive such welcome as will tempt her muse to more ambitious effort. Here is the true melody of a heart full of song, and full of song because it is full of the beauties of nature. Most of the themes are simple, but with such fine command of her medium the poet may one day find inspiration for music in the deeper mysteries.

"The title poem is like the wind itself, forever varying, and there is no better sample of the writer's manner than the closing stanza."

Baseball Hero Brings Laurels to Sonoma Valley

"Duffy" Lewis Calls Boyes Springs Home and a Royal Welcome is Accorded Him on His Arrival From Triumphs

"Duffy Lewis," the hero of the World's Series and the idol of baseball fans is home from his victory in the East and is domiciled at Boyes Springs. He made a home run for Sonoma Valley the very day he arrived in San Francisco, for a warm "welcome home" had been planned for him and besides it was Colonel Brady's birthday and Duffy and the Colonel are "some" friends. The baseball hero has put Boyes firmly on the map from the fact that he has called it his home throughout the East and has told of the devoted little wife he left in Sonoma Valley to oversee the construction of a charming bungalow, all of which is true and in return for the honors, the residents of Boyes led by Dr. Paramore arranged a big time when Mr. and Mrs. "Duffy" came home Tuesday night, bringing with them a coterie of newspaper men and photographers and a lot of admiring friends to join in the celebration.

Bon fires blazed. There were fire works, music and feasting. Fine turkeys were killed for the feast. It was a right royal banquet. There were speeches and toasts and a fine pipe for Colonel Brady presented by Mrs. "Duffy" Lewis herself.

The little wife of the baseball star is a Boston girl but is enthusiastic over life at the Springs and declares that our wonderful climate has added twenty pounds to her weight. She is a refined and clever young woman who devotes much attention to athletics but loves her home and is busy now planning the furnishings for the new bungalow, where they are to spend the winter. "Duffy" is a fine type of athlete, neither drinks nor smokes and is very unassuming and likeable for one who is in the limelight so strong and comes in for so much attention.

Boyes Springs will have an added attraction now that this famous couple are numbered among its residents. Those who attended the "home coming" Tuesday from here included Mrs. Emparan, Dr. and Mrs. Thomson, the Moldanados, Jim Baines, M. J. Powers and Sam Lewis.

SNOW IN SONOMA

W. R. Snow, a humorous Socialist lecturer of national reputation, will be in Sonoma Thursday evening October 28th and will speak on "War." If you are a friend of peace come and hear this highly interesting talker. Bring your friends. Everyone free. Remember the date and place. October 28th, at 8 p. m., Union Hall.

TO THE PUBLIC

All mail intended for the Index-Tribune should be addressed to W. L. or C. G. Murphy, as Postmaster Wagon, acting on the orders of the administratrix of the Gracie estate, has been giving Index-Tribune letters to her, despite the fact that we possess the bill of sale to the newspaper and it is no longer in the estate. The undersigned have appealed to the postal authorities in Washington D. C., during which time communication of every kind should be addressed, W. L. or C. G. Murphy.

VISITORS HERE FROM EASTERN STATES

Chas. G. Simmons of Dighton Massachusetts is a guest of his cousin Frank Wattress above Agua Caliente. Mr. Simmons has been enjoying the beauties of the Exposition at San Diego and also the Panama Pacific but is now rusticiating at the fine ranch of his Sonoma Valley relative and will remain for two or three weeks.

Chas. Inman, W. H. Inman their mother Mrs. M. E. Inman and Mrs. A. Cone all of Janesville, Wisconsin are visiting at the John Serres ranch near Agua Caliente.

The Inmans are prosperous farmers in their home state and made the trip west to see the Fair. They are relatives of Mrs. Serres and are enjoying their visit here immensely.

SOME SPEED

Deputy Sheriff Jack Murray appeared against Stewart Rogers last Saturday, in Santa Rosa, claiming that Rogers was speeding in violation of the law limiting time killing to thirty miles an hour.

Now Jack is an authority on speed and you cannot throw dust in his eyes, if he sees you first, but as no speedometer figured in the evidence and as Judge Vaughan seemed to hold the view that the motorists were playing a game of catch as catch can, Rogers was not held.

ENTERTAIN AT DINNER

Misses Gertrude and Anita Breitenbach entertained a number of their young friends at a dinner party Friday evening. A fine repast was served after which there were cards and music.

Those present were Miss Elmira Hansen, the Misses Breitenbach, Geo. Leiser, Leonard Thomas, Hamil Wagon and Mr. and Mrs. L. Breitenbach.

Geo. Reed Sonoma's veteran station agent was a visitor in this vicinity Sunday.

her sister Mrs. August Figone in San Francisco this week.

men of Sonoma were Vineburg visitors on Sunday last.

horse tamer is at present enjoying a visit to the Exposition city where he is the guest of friends and relatives.

Jos. T. Groskopf and family of Sonoma are now residents of Vineburg. Well the chief engineer of the Gundlach Bundschu wine company belongs to Vineburg anyhow.

James Testino capitalist of Vineburg and real estate man transacted business in the metropolis on Monday last.

Several electric stars have flashed around this vicinity during the past week or so, and among them
we noticed City Trustee Chas. Mc-Devitt, Emile Andrieux and Ralph Evans, all live wires in their business.

Mr. and Mrs. Bosquit and son Alfred of San Francisco were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Batto on Sunday. Mrs. Bosquit and son are the guests of Mr. and Mrs.
August Rouquie Sr. this week.

On Sunday evening last the Elwood brothers band of Petaluma stopped at Vineburg on their way from Sacramento where they had been filling an engagement in the Capitol city and after partaking of supper at Howard Browns they delighted the guests with several choice musical selections which were enjoyed by all.

John Batto and Sons have installed a new feed mill at their plant at Batto's Spur and are prepared to mix, grind and reclean all kinds of poultry feed. This is the first mill of the kind in Sonoma Valley and will surely be a benefit to the poultry and stock men, who can see their feed prepared for themselves and know what they are getting. The mill occupies a building 28 by 80 feet and is equipped with all the latest machinery.

Thursday eve, Oct. 14th was surely Vallejo's night in Vineburg as a number of Vallejo society people motored to the burg and ager Howard Brown who was ably assisted by his chief clerk Eddie ment alleged against him in the Grand Jury's indictment. His alleged crime was committed at Fetters Springs.

Wayne was in Judge Seawell's court on Monday morning. His case was called. "Have you got an attorney, Mr. Wayne?" inquired the Court.

Not yet, your Honor; but I expect Mr. O'Connor here from San
